DELINQUENT & PAST-DUE ACCOUNTS: Players whose deposit or monthly fee payments become delinquent will be ineligible to participate in age-group skills sessions, team practices, or games. Players with past-due balances will also not receive any uniform package items until all outstanding balances have been paid and the account is current.

NINEONE SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY: Sponsors contributing $3,000 or more will have their business featured on the club's official website and social media platforms. Sponsorships may be tax-deductible and help support program expenses, including player development, training, tournaments, and team operations. This is a great opportunity for family, friends, employers, and local businesses to support our athletes while gaining valuable exposure within the community.

WITHDRAWAL & REFUND POLICY: No refunds will be issued to players who withdraw from or leave the club before the conclusion of the season, regardless of the reason.

IMPORTANT REMINDER: Families are responsible for keeping monthly payments current. Please make sure payments are submitted by the required date to avoid interruption of participation, practices, games and skills sessions..

MEET & GREET: Date: TBD. Meet Your Team! Join us as you meet your coaches, teammates, and fellow families. We'll review the tournament schedule, discuss important season expectations, and go over the Player-Parent Agreement to ensure everyone is prepared for a successful season.

NINEONE PRACTICE: Regular practices will begin the first week of September..
